- Our subsidiaries, associates and agents where necessary to facilitate your relationship with us.
- The Liechtenstein Tax Administration (Steuerverwaltung), the Liechtenstein Office for Data Protection, other applicable regulators, law enforcement agencies and other authorities who require reporting of processing activities, or may request information from us, in terms of applicable law and in certain circumstances.

- Professional advisers such as consultants, bankers, professional indemnity insurers, brokers and auditors.
- Other organisations where exchange of information is for the purpose of fraud protection or credit risk reduction.
- Debt recovery agencies who assist us with the recovery of debts owed to us.

If a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way and for the same purposes as set out in this policy.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law (including applicable data protection and privacy law). We do not allow our third party business partners or service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our documented instructions. Furthermore, these third parties access and process your data on the basis of strict confidentiality and subject to the appropriate security measures and safeguards.

We may also disclose your data:

- a) if we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data to comply with any legal obligation, judgment or under an order from a court, tribunal or authority; or
- b) if we believe your actions are inconsistent with our user agreements or policies, or to protect the rights, property or safety of Bittrex Global or others; or
- c) in connection with, or during negotiations of, any merger, sale of company assets, financing or acquisition of all or a portion of our business by another company; or
- d) if we have your consent or at your direction.

We may also share aggregated or anonymised data, which cannot reasonably be used to identify you.

9. INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS

We do not generally transfer your personal data to entities outside the European Economic Area (“EEA”) (other than to other Bittrex Global entities) except as may be necessary to: (i) enable your use of the Platform and our Services, (ii) fulfil our contractual obligations to you or exercise our contractual obligations against you, (iii) comply with our legal or regulatory obligations or (iv) assert, file or exercise a legal claim. Where we do need to transfer such personal data outside the EEA (whether for these stated purposes or any other purpose listed in Section 7 above), we will ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to that personal data by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards applies or is otherwise implemented:

- a) We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European Commission in a corresponding adequacy decision.
- b) In the absence of an adequacy decision, we will use standard contractual clauses that have been approved by the European Commission.
- c) Where we use providers based in the U.S., we make sure that the transfer of data is necessary for the conclusion or the fulfilment of the contract concluded with you.

In particular, we intend to share your personal data with Andromeda Technologies LLC, 701 Fifth Ave, Suite 4200, Seattle, WA 98104, and its affiliates in the United States, and with Bittrex Global (Bermuda) Ltd. of Canon’s Court, 22 Victoria Street, Hamilton HM 12, Bermuda.

Such transfers of your personal data shall only take place subject to the appropriate safeguards. In particular, wherever possible and practicable, we make use of Standard Contractual Clauses approved by the European Commission in order to transfer your personal data to our service providers indicated above.

Please contact us at compliance@bittrexglobal.com if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data out of the EEA.

10. DATA SECURITY

While no online or electronic system is guaranteed to be secure, we take reasonable measures to help protect information about you from loss, theft, misuse, and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction.

In relation to you visiting our Site, we use the industry standard encryption for the connection between our servers and the user's browser. Whether an individual page of our internet presence is transmitted through encryption can be seen by e.g. the shut padlock symbol in your browser's address bar.

We have put in place appropriate technical and organisational security measures to prevent your personal data from being partially or entirely lost, accidentally or intentionally manipulated, used or accessed in an unauthorised way by third parties, altered, disclosed, or destroyed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality. Our security measures are improved in accordance with technological progress.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

11. DATA RETENTION

11.1 How long will you use my personal data for?

Please note that we consider our relationship with you to be an ongoing and continuous customer relationship, until terminated.

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for (i.e. the ongoing service provision) and, thereafter, for the purpose of satisfying any legal, accounting, tax, KYC and AML, and reporting requirements or obligations to which we may be subject and/or to the extent that we may also need to retain your personal data to be able to assert, exercise or defend possible future legal claims against or otherwise involving you.

By and large, our retention of your personal data shall not exceed the period of three (3) years from the date of the termination of your relationship with us

(which would typically arise from the closure/de-registration of your account on the Platform). This period of retention enables us to use the data in question for the possible filing, exercise or defence of legal claims (taking into account the timeframe of applicable statutes of limitation and prescriptive periods). In certain cases though, we may need to retain your personal data for a period of up to ten (10) years in order to comply with applicable accounting and tax laws (this will primarily consist of your Transaction Data).

In the event that Bittrex Global's activities are held by competent legislators and regulators to amount to a 'relevant activity' under due diligence law, we will retain your AML and KYC Data for the duration of your business relationship with us and for a further period of ten (10) years following its termination. We may need to revise this AML retention period in the event of applicable legal or regulatory developments, but we will notify you if this is the case at the time.

In some circumstances, you can ask us to delete your data. See below for further information.

Please contact our DPO for further details about the retention periods that we apply.

11.2 Data Minimisation

Whenever and to the extent possible, we anonymise the information which we hold about you when it is no longer necessary to identify you from the data which we hold about you (anonymous data).

In order to collect, use, and share Aggregate Data (see section 5), we will even anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice.

12. YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

12.1 Your rights

You have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data.

- a) Request access to your personal data.
- b) Request rectification of your personal data.

- c) Request erasure of your personal data.
- d) Object to use of your personal data.
- e) Request restriction of using your personal data.
- f) Request transfer of your personal data.
- g) Right to withdraw consent.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact us at compliance@bittrexglobal.com. These rights are explained below.

12.2 No fee usually required

You will not normally have to pay a fee to exercise your data subject rights.

However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in the above circumstances.

12.3 What we need from you

We will need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other data subject rights). This includes your name, address, date of birth, and (in case of a passport/identity card being requested) its validity period.

12.4 Time limit to respond

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within the period of one (1) month from receipt of the request.

Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you within four weeks and keep you updated.

12.5 Your legal rights explained further

Under the GDPR you have the right to:

- a) Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a data subject access request). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it. In particular, you are entitled to receive information on the processing purposes, the categories of personal data, the categories of recipients to whom your personal data has been or is disclosed, the intended duration of storage, the existence of a right to correction or rectification, erasure, restriction of or objection to processing, transfer (data portability), the information's origin (as far as it has not been collected on our part), as well as on the existence of automated individual decision-making including profiling. You may send an email to compliance@bittrexglobal.com requesting information as to the personal data which we process. You shall receive one copy free of charge via email of the personal data which is undergoing processing. Any further copies of the information processed may incur a charge of €10.00 (or other currency equivalent).

If the confirmation as stated above cannot be delivered to you within one (1) month after receiving the request due to the complexity of the request, we will inform you of the extension of the deadline (of two (2) months maximum) within one (1) month after receiving your request, while providing reasons for the delay. The requested information will be delivered no later than within three (3) months after receiving the request (Article 12(3) GDPR), about the third party or publicly accessible source from which we have collected your personal data.

- b) Request of correction or rectification of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected and/or updated, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us. As mentioned, it is in your interest to keep us informed of any changes or updates to your personal data which occur during your relationship with us.
- c) Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where:
- there is no need or legitimate reason for us continuing to process it;
 - you have withdrawn your consent to the processing (where applicable);
 - you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below);
 - we have processed your data unlawfully; or
 - we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law.

Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request. These may include instances where continued processing is necessary in order to be able to:

- comply with a legal or regulatory obligation to which we are subject; or
 - establish, exercise or defend our legal claims.
- d) Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes (see Marketing in Section 7 above).

In some cases, the right to object will not lead to us no longer processing the personal data due to compelling legitimate grounds to further process your data overriding your interests, rights and freedoms. In such cases, we will demonstrate these grounds in a clear and specific manner.

- e) Request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios:
- if you contest the data's accuracy, enabling us to verify said accuracy;
 - where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it;
 - where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or
 - you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it (see Section 12.5(d)).
- f) Request the transfer (data portability) of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated data (see Section 6.4) with regard to which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the data to perform a contract with you.
- g) Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data (which will not generally be the case). This will not however affect the lawfulness of any processing which we carried out before you withdrew your consent. Any processing activities that are not based on your consent will remain unaffected by the withdrawal of consent.

- h) Right to file a complaint with the supervisory authority: If you are of the opinion that your personal data has been processed unlawfully or that your rights under the Act and/or the GDPR have been breached, you have the right to lodge a complaint at any time to a competent supervisory authority on data protection matters, such as in particular the supervisory authority in the place of your habitual residence or your place of work. In the case of Liechtenstein, this is the Datenschutzstelle (Office for Data Protection), Städtle 38, P.O. Box 684, 9490 Vaduz, Liechtenstein (<https://www.datenschutzstelle.li>). We would, however, appreciate the opportunity to deal with your concerns before you approach the supervisory authority, so please contact us in the first instance.

Kindly note that none of these data subject rights are absolute and must generally be weighed against our own legal obligations and legitimate interests. If a decision is taken to override your data subject request, you will be informed of this by our data protection team along with the reasons for our decision.
